An aerial photograph of the Sigiriya rock fortress in Sri Lanka. The fortress is a massive, isolated rock formation rising from a dense, green forest. The top of the rock is flat and contains several ancient stone structures, including a large rectangular platform and smaller buildings. A narrow, steep staircase is visible on the side of the rock, leading up to the summit. In the background, a large, calm lake is surrounded by lush vegetation. The overall scene is captured in a warm, golden light, suggesting early morning or late afternoon.

FAQS

Sri Lanka

Which airport do I need to fly in and out?	Fly into and out of Colombo International Airport (CMB)
What time should my flight arrive and leave?	Fly In: Any flight arriving in the morning or early afternoon, by 4PM the latest. Fly Out: Anytime on Thursday the 15th, bare in mind that the transfer from Weligama to Colombo takes 2.5 hours approx.
Are transfers included?	Almost all your transfers are included! Transfers from Colombo to Sigiriya are included (within time slots), transfers to and between hotels and all destinations, plus Safari are all included. Your returning transfer from Weligama to Colombo is not included, this can be arranged from our hotel.
Do I need a Visa?	Most likely yes, you do need a visa. You can find essential travel advice – including security and local laws, as well as passport and visa information – on the government website of your home country: UK residents: review the Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) Travel Advice before your adventure. This will cost $50 if purchased beforehand, and more expensive on arrival. You can find out more here: https://eta.gov.lk/slvisa Residents of other countries: refer to the travel advice provided by your own government or local consulate. Please be aware that passport and visa requirements can change before departure, so it's important to stay updated with the latest information.
